Dear Messrs. Corbett, Hywood, Aylmer, Jacobs:

WITHOUT PREJUDICE AND IN GOOD FAITH
Re: Further submission of material for complaint about Ben Cubby's behaviour

Last Thursday your reporter Ben Cubby was given the courtesy of a personal reply to his email of February 19th, 2013 together with email and paper copies of my complaint to Fairfax and SMH. That was followed by his barrage of derogatory, dishonest and false tweets over the Easter holiday weekend. His dishonesty continues by circulating misrepresentations to 8,524 people. Some recipients follow his lead to spread his comment through their Tweets.

His Tweets circulate lies that I have advised him are false and proven to be false. He makes reference to elements of Nazism in association with me and/or The Galileo Movement. He falsely claims that Eustace Mullins' book is anti-Semitic when a search using the word "Jew" in the online version of that book finds no use of that word. Mullins' book is not anti-Semitic. It is a credible work of research independently verified by many other texts including those by respected historians, economists, lawyers and bankers. His claim about Mullins' book is false.

He cites an email written and publicly posted by me. In doing so he reverses my email's conclusion and main point.

His behaviour is not that of an honest, responsible, competent, mature journalist. Do you condone his behaviour as being acceptable from an employee of Fairfax or the SMH?

In the interests of accountability and transparency this letter and your response(s), if any, will be posted on the Internet. The relevant page is here: <http://www.conscious.com.au/letters.html>

Yours sincerely,
