CAUSING YOU TO MISLEAD PARLIAMENT?

Senator Wong:

It needed two days for the package I mailed by Registered Post on July 31, 2009 to travel from Brisbane to the parliamentary house post office. Yet for your staff to collect that same package from the parliamentary post office needed more than four (4) weeks.

Senator Wong, given your legal training, and with regard to the Emissions Trading Scheme (ETS), I'm confident you'll agree that it's unwise to obtain advice only from those holding a certain viewpoint on climate. With due respect I ask whether you have sought advice on climate from scientists who doubt that Earth's modest warming period from the mid-1970's through to around 1998 was due to human action?

If so, could you please advise their names and qualifications and their advice? If not, please advise why you have not sought advice on climate from scientists who do not agree with the UN IPCC's falsities and fabrications?

Could you please advise the basis on which you and/or your government decided to label carbon dioxide a pollutant and to name your ETS the Carbon Pollution Reduction Scheme?

I consider the documents sent to you by Registered Post and again separately by facsimile to be vitally important to Australia's environmental and economic security. I will be pleased to provide additional scientific references for your office and provide the names of solid and internationally eminent scientists with whom you could seek advice as an alternative to the discredited IPCC. I remain available to answer your questions.
